Hail to thee, Dear C. C. H. S.
 Alma Mater True
 Loyalty and Love and Honor
 In our hearts for you

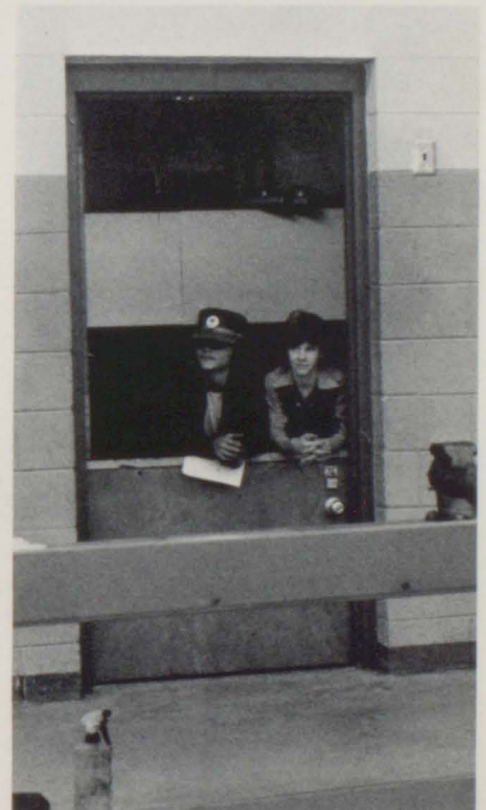

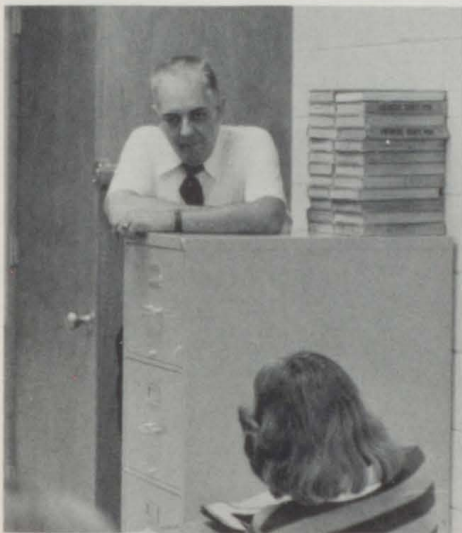

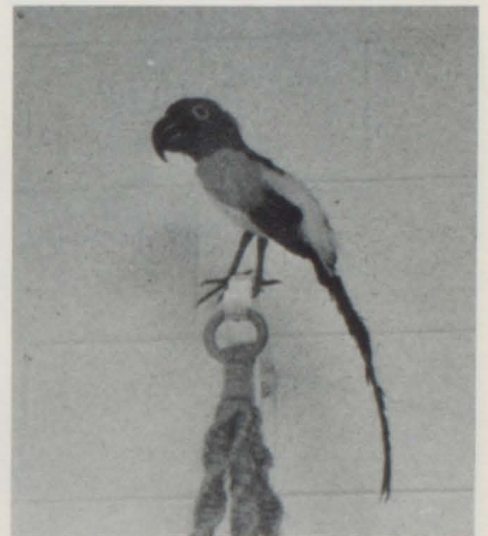

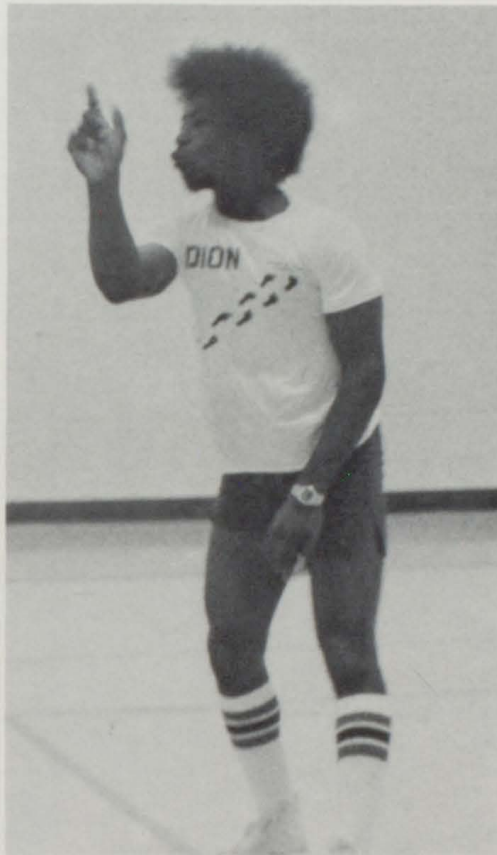

C. C. H. S. Alma Mater
 Hear our praise to thee
 C. C. H. S. Alma Mater
 Loyal we will be
 God our Father, Bless us ever
 Keep Thy children dear
 Free from all Thy cares and sorrows
 Ever honoring Thee.

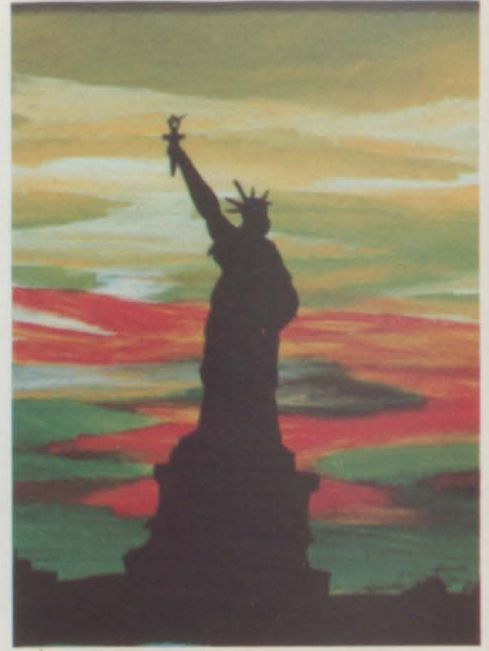

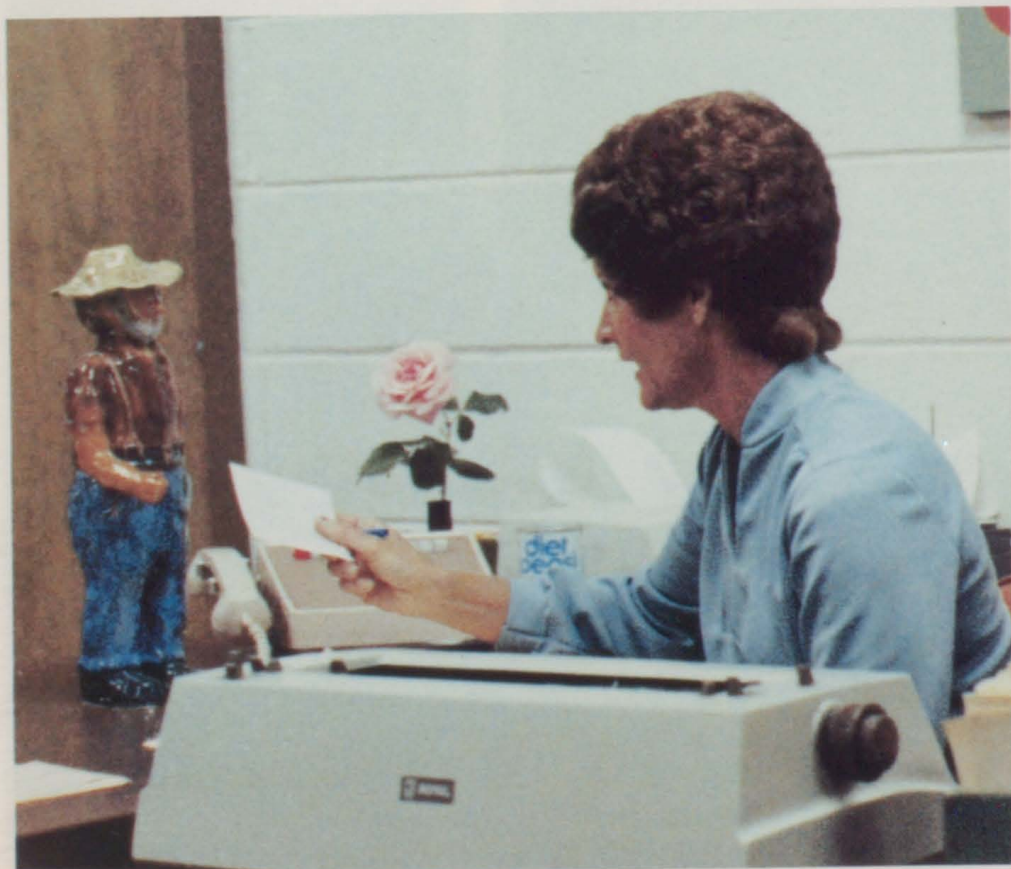

Cut the bull and let's start the game!

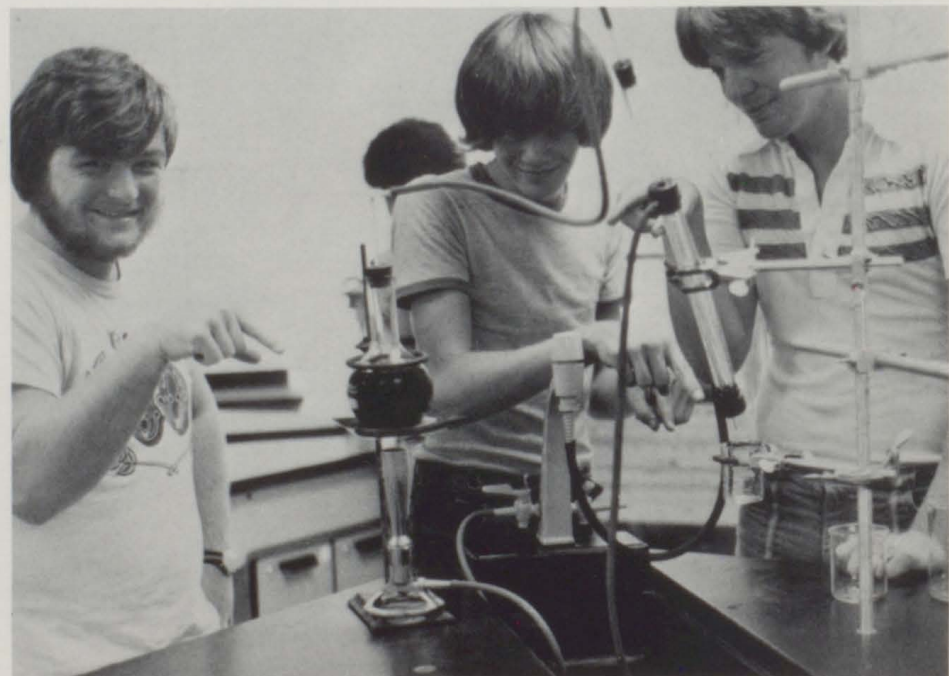

I've told you twice, you must have this note signed by Mr. Hoskins.

"The head never begins to swell until the mind stops growing."

Atlanta Constitution

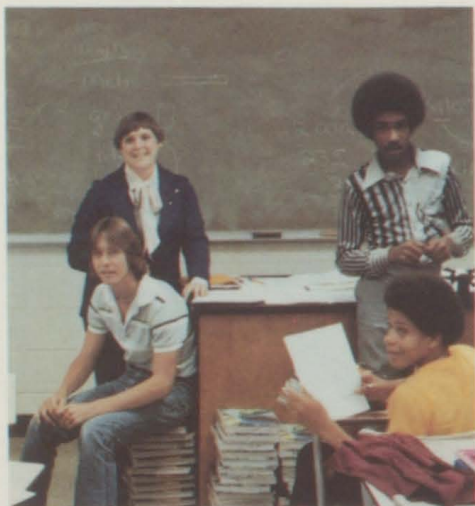

"Modern paintings are like women. You'll never enjoy them if you try to understand them."

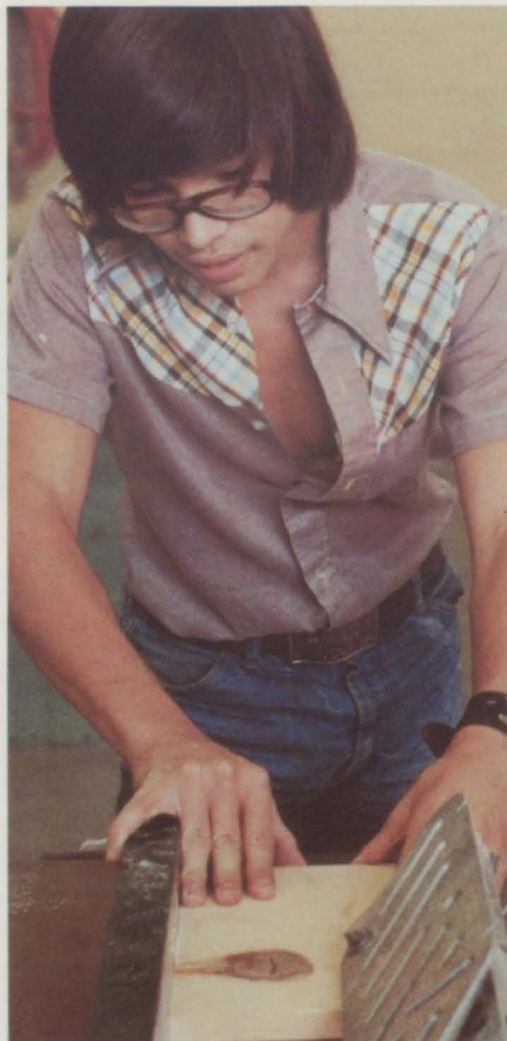

Harold Coffin

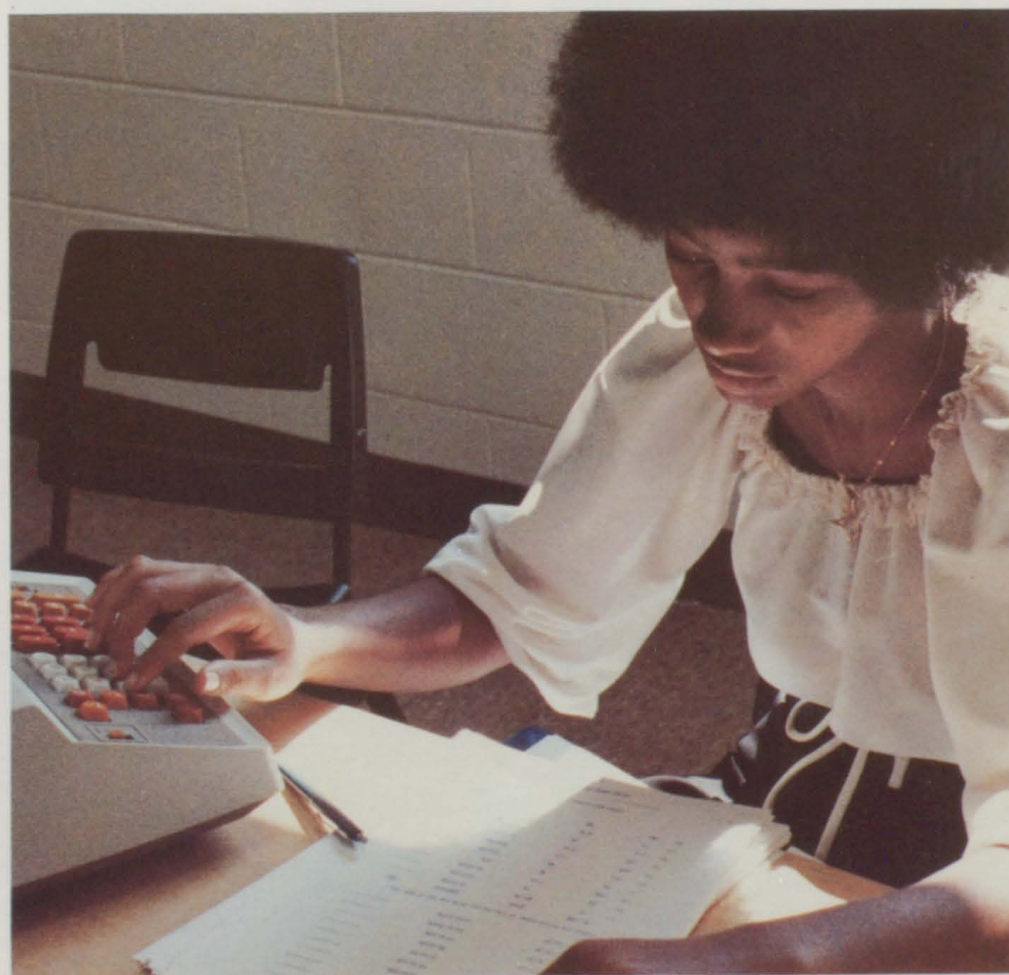

Teaching is such hard work!

Dear God:
 We ain't what we ought to be.
 We ain't what we gonna be.
 We ain't what we wanta be.
 But, thank God,
 We ain't what we used to be.

If school is so much fun, what happened to Robert and Dion?

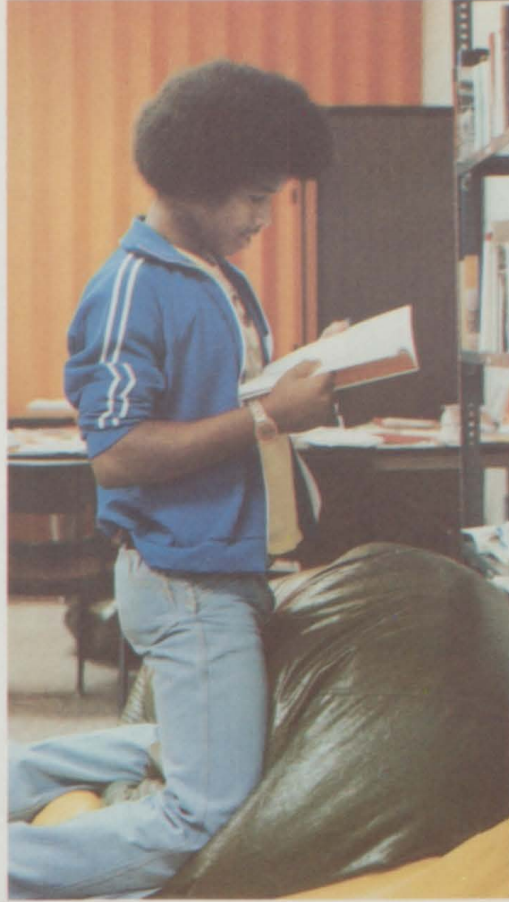

"Hi friends!"

All together now!

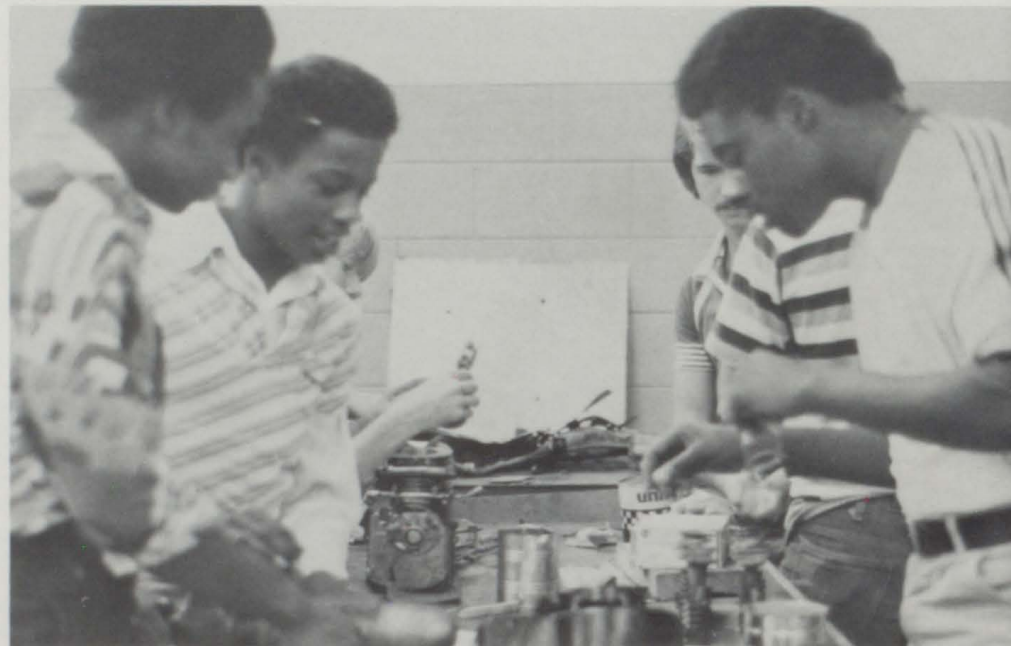

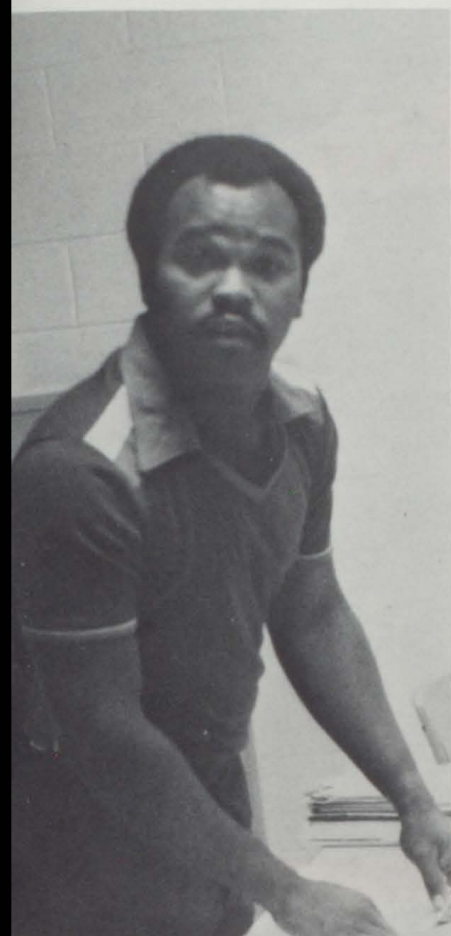

"Mrs. Marable, we don't have to eat this do we?"

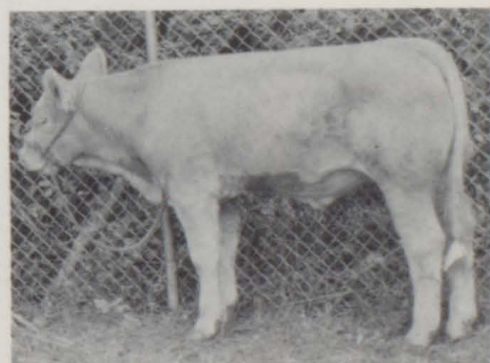

"Ah! This is the life."

Last Will and Testaments

I, PAULINE BATTLE, being of freaky mind and not so perfect body, (but well equipped), do hereby bequeath this is my last will and testament. To my little sister, Arthea, I leave the ability to get interested in class subjects; to Angelene McCrary, the ability to control her temper; to Cynthia Hires and Cheryl Harris, I leave my outstanding ability to take the good with the bad as well as the bitter with the sweet; to Bessie Felts, the ability to stand as profound as the Statue of Liberty; to Angela Jordan, I leave my humor and techniques to carry on; To Marie Harris, all the food in the cafeteria (Even though she wouldn't get enough). Last but not least, to all my dear friends whose names are not mentioned, I leave my kindness, personality, and the ability to do their . . . to get away from C. C. C. H. S. Good luck!

I, MARIANNE MITCHELL, being of insane mind and partial body, do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To Terri O'Neal, I leave my locker. "Maybe no one will hit you in the head." To Mr. Hunter, "I leave my niece, Kim, to open the door on you." To Robert Atkinson, I leave the kisses that I never had the opportunity to give. To Lori Moncrief, I leave the Annual Staff. "Do it the way you want to, Lori." To Cream and Pinetree, I leave Mr. Lively. "Do him in boys." To Larry Wheat, I leave a space in the parking lot in hopes he'll have a car. To Cornelia Spillers, I leave the happiness and love she has given me. Good luck and may you always get what you want. To the class of "80", I leave many thanks for all the great times we've shared. I love you all!!

I, SHERRY GREEN, being of strange body and forgetable mind bequeath this my last will and testament. To Tonya and Jodi, I leave OLD YELLOW in hopes that it will stay together for the next 5 years. To Michael Childres I leave my ghost to say hey to everyday. To Jay Andrews I leave the ability to be Evil Kneivel and also the ability not to take up the habit of lying. To Ms. Sue Thorton I leave my responsibilities in the guidance center. Good Luck. To F. H. A. I leave my good times that I had. Last but not least, I leave Pat Green, the best times of our lives at C. C. H. S.

I, TIMMY MATTOX, being of wild mind and not so great body do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To the upcoming Senior boys (men), I leave my ability to "snow job" the girls because I'm fool for their curls. To the FHA girls I leave my "high" hopes that they will be able to choose a better sweetheart next year because you-all won't have me to gossip about anymore.

Last Will

I, KATHY BREWER, being of very little mind and weird body do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To Angie Hamlin, I leave all our wonderful times in the mornings before school and after plus, those weekends I shared with you, and my most prized possession, "Steve". To Mark Hamlin I leave my parking space No. 3 in hopes he'll have a decent car to put in it one day. To Kelly Davis and Tammie Dingler I leave the race track in Mr. Miller's room. To Cheryl Woods I leave my unusual name that I received from dropping cups of ice in my lap. To Tammie Tidwell I leave the times her pants always managed to get wet. To Mr. Lively I leave all the crazy wonderful times in psychology. You're the best teacher around, plus the best friend a person can have. What can I say A. B. L., but, I luv-ya and I'll miss you!!

I, LOUVENIA REEVES, being of exotic mind and a healthy body, do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To my brother Milton, I leave my outstanding determination and pride. To my great friend and hilarious pal, Marie Harris, I leave our great abilities to imitate Mrs. Bassett and Mr. Hawkins. (Keep em smiling Harris) To Cheryl Harris and Cynthia Hires, I leave the ability to hold their heads high no matter how many people put them down. Because the more they talk it gives me pride to go on and reach an even higher goal. To Rose S., Sharon H., and Cynthia C., I leave 15 lbs. of my weight. (Send most of it to your brains.) To Jennifer Walker and Bessie F. I leave the ability to be profound and ambitious and reach for the stars. I leave my great ability to be under super control with my temper to Linda "Red". To Angela Jordan I leave my laugh and smile. To Mr. A. B. L. and Mrs. Bassett I leave the ability to find another brilliant student as myself. (It shall be your greatest task ever) To Mr. Hunter I leave his ability to be sly and eat 2 pieces of cake. To all the juniors (above) I leave my great wheeling and dealing ability. Knock em out at O'Jays girls!

I, JOSIE WORSHAM, being of sound mind and body, will Solomon Dickey all my LOVE. To Dan Traylor, my government seat in Lively's room. And to Annette Dickey, my charm and personality.

I, PAMELA LEWIS, being of perfect mind and precious body to declare this to be my last will and testament. To Andy Lee Davis I will ALL of my Love in hopes that he will always cherish it and me also. To Rose Smith, Jennifer Walker, Martha McAfee, and last but not least, Cynthia Corbin, I hope they will always have all the love and happiness they could ever want and need All they have to do is leave it to Greg B., Dion C., Alfrazier W., and Kenneth D.

I, LICIA WOODSON, being of small mind and body do hereby bequeath this to be my last will and testament. To Cheryl Woods I leave all the good times we have had on the weekends including the Sunday in Atlanta (C. J.) To Jay Andrews I leave the ability to relay messages as well as he can flatter, be sweet! To Robert Atkinson I leave all the luck in the world so that he may pass all of Mrs. Spillers' classes with the help of Cliff Notes. To Tammie Tidwell I leave a bell to ring and hope that she will use it as often as she did the one in 5th period.

I, PETROLIA DAVIS, with a sound mind and body, will Kenneth Tukes all my love. To my sister Earnestine Davis, my government seat in Mr. Lively's room, and to Gerinda Lockett my locker no. 242. To Maxine Davis, my intelligence and last but not least I leave 10 pounds of my weight to Dorothy Jordan, and to Gloria Cotton some of my height.

I, GREG GREENE, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave to the following people, Jerome (Root) Prater the throne of the President of the highly respectful and elite group of young men the D. O. G. S. To Rickey Graddick, the ability to make "95" in Mr. Lively's room like Kenneth Davis and I did.

I, BISHOP FULLER, hereby declare this my last will and testament. I will to Thomas (T-Boat) Danielly and Rickey (Steamboat) Graddick the ability to play basketball without messing up. To Martha McAfee and Cheryl Johnson the state championship. To Tyrone Fuller, my parking space and to Carolyn Willis I leave my love.

and Testament

I, CHRISTY MATHEWS, being of too much body and not enough brain, do hereby declare this my last will and testament. To Mr. Lively, Mrs. Marable, and Miss Thornton, I leave them one of my phones for them to use only when they get in one of those moods (CRAZY) and I also leave them my love, even though they would probably rather do without it. To Robin Williams, I leave my ability to be on time to all my classes which happens every pink and purple moon; I hope you never forget all the good times we've had—you'll probably forget since you are losing your mind. To Wendy Bowman I leave my locker and parking space, which is all over the parking lot, because you are so much like me, I thought you would like every parking space. I leave everyone my ability to mess up Mrs. Walton's typewriter.

I, BENNY DAVIS, being of silly mind and mean body do hereby leave to Rodney my ability to snake all the women wherever he goes. I leave my ability to stay out at lunch all three periods to Jeff and the sale of shoes for all kind. I leave my wild and crazy ways to Sherry. I leave my great ability to drive to Lisa and Tammy. To all my girlfriends and friends I leave my best memories so they may always remember me.

I, KIM DAVIS, being of scattered brain and indisposable body, do hereby leave the following. To my dearly beloved sister Kelly Davis (Booty) I leave my ability to make people believe I know what I'm doing when actually I don't and never will, and to Vicki Highsmith I leave my desk in Mrs. Greene's room in hopes that her math grades will improve and if not at least she'll find a good friend like I did. To Phyllis Moss I leave the pay telephone in the school lobby and my high telephone bills. To Mrs. Greene I leave James Westberry (Cookie), Michael Childres, and Larry Amerson in hopes that her life here will never get boring. And last but not least, I leave my May West interpretation (Personality) and the promise that I'll be back to visit one day to the most charming big boy at this school, Mr. "Foxy" Hunter. I love ya, people.

I, BARBARA SOLOMON, being of freaky mind and fine body, leave the following. I leave to Yolanda Martin my loving ways, may she carry them on successfully. To Pinky I leave my doggish ways, may she use them in time of danger, and last but not least I will to Alfred Johnson my love and a little bit of my everything.

I, ANGELA SMITH, being of sound mind and perfect body, do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To Annie and Lealie Dean I leave my great knowledge for them to carry on. To all the special people in my life, I leave great memories and a sweet farewell. And to this school, memories of a great student.

I, BOBBY O'NEAL, being of strong mind and athletic body leave the following: To Randy Gunter I leave my parking place and a six pack of Old English. To Mr. Zachery I leave my baseball shoes and golden glove, I leave to Teresa Hester all the good times we have had together and the old saying, "I Love You!", and to all of the uprising Seniors, the best of luck.

I, ALVIN WALKER, being of sound mind and ready body do hereby leave the following things to all the ladies of CCCHS, I leave my memory and my first cousin Marshall to play with. To Denise, Jennifer, and Lucinda I leave to them my faith, charm, and ability to stay free of all restrictions. To Yvonne Willis I leave my love, and to an unknown young lady, I leave my greatest admiration and the thoughts that I will always remember YOU.

I, DION S. CORBIN, being of sound mind and masculine body do hereby bequeath my last will and testament: I will to Jennifer Walker all my heart and love always. I will to Cynthia Corbin my ability to have the will and determination to do anything without becoming angry. To Marshall Walker I leave my coolness, and last but not least I leave the upcoming Seniors the best of success.

I, ANDY DAVIS, being of sweet mind and loving soul hereby declare this my last will and testament: To Pamela Lewis I will

ALL my LOVE in hopes that she will always LOVE me. I also will to my brothers, Steve and Tony, my ability to cope with academic problems without becoming frustrated. To Martha McAfee I will the ability to love Alfrazier Webb with all her heart and soul even when he is not around. And last but not least I will to the upcoming Seniors the best of luck in their Senior year even though mine has not been the best one ever.

I, MARTHA S. JONES, will my ability to my brother Kelvin Jones to stay out of trouble while in school and to Leslie Raines my ability to stop talking so much and also my love to the one I love.

I, LORRIE GORDON, being of very little mind and too much body do hereby bequeath this to be my last will and testament. To Tammie Tidwell, I leave all the good times we have shared on the way to school and the excitement of counting all the "Batmobiles" that travel through the parking lot. Also, Tammie, I leave you "Booga"—watch out. He'll get you sooner or later. To Mark Hamlin I leave the hopes of one day you owning a "new" car. I leave the memories of the "Okefenokee" to Onie Sanders, do you remember that? Also, Onie, I leave you the worries we shared of what we would be after graduation. To Mr. Lively I leave my "Mama's Pot" maybe one day you'll find some really good use for it. To anyone in Lively's "Psycho" class next year I leave my ability to get him off the subject and near the point of insanity for the rest of the week. But watch out, it may be one of his "Days"! To all of the "smart" Seniors of 1980 I leave the ability to graduate after first quarter. Don't let anyone talk you out of it. It's GREAT! To all my friends at CCCHS I leave my fondest memories and the thrill of one day being a Senior! Good Luck!

I, ROSE LUCAS, being of sound mind and FINE body will to Mary Ann Prater my pleasing personality. To Mary Nell Mathews and Doris Lockett, the ability to laugh only when things are funny. To the Junior guys, with the exception of a few, the ability to act their age.

I, STEVE HARRIS, being of Milky mind and body leave my parking space to Tim Smith so he'll have somewhere to park his big feet. To the F. F. A. I leave my ability to build a farm in the mud. I leave my rattlesnakes to William Collins (M-m-m-mel) who loves them so much. To Mr. Lively I leave the comfort of knowing I was the last Harris for him to worry about teaching. To this school I leave NOTHING!

I, LINDA JONES, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To Virginia Jones and Sylvester Jones I leave my ability to pass English, and the rest of the school system the courage to make it through the Senior year.

I, TERESA GREEN, being of Scholastic mind and Obese body (HA!) do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To Mrs. Bassett I leave my food in C-04 that Mark and I didn't eat. To Mrs. Spillers I leave the students and teachers that B every quarter about registration. To Mr. Pressley I leave a pot of coffee and the ability to put names with faces. To Mr. Lively I leave the memories of all the great times we've had. For the lack of a better way to say anything else, I leave the secrets of getting me to work to Mr. Smith. (They're behind the stockroom door). To Lori & Tammie, I leave all the great times and I hope they have many more fun times before they leave this place. To James and Kim I leave all of the good times they can handle at CCCHS. To Keith McCranie I share the memories of one afternoon—I'm not gonna leave it all to you because I don't want to forget it. To Mr. West I leave the Key Club—Keep 'em straight and sober. A big THANK-YOU goes to Mrs. Stancile for all of those cups of coffee that I drank. To all of the teachers at CCCHS, the ones I like and the ones I don't like, I leave some other fortunate person who will interrupt your classes all of the time.

I, TERRI MARBERRY, being of small mind and body, do hereby bequeath this to be my last will and testament. To my sister, Kim, I leave a lifetime supply of Mountain Dews and "tater" chips. To my LITTLE brother, Jeff, I leave a copy of my favorite book called "Little White Lies" (in case you get caught and I'm not there to help you!) To Brent Hatcher, I leave a pair of contacts to replace the one's he lost in the office. To Robert Atkinson, I leave Lisa, who will appreciate his "shows" as much as I did. And to Lori Moncrief, I leave my ability to steal ripe watermelons.

I, GRADY ATKINSON, being of high mind and relaxed body, do hereby declare that this is my l-a-s-t will and testament. I leave to Mrs. Spillers all those sorry compositions that I wrote so she can use them as an example how not to write a composition. To Robert Atkinson, I leave my parking place in hopes that he will use it more often. I also leave my ability to write bad compositions in hopes that he will not use it. To Vicki Highsmith, I leave my ability to get high in the parking lot because she needs something to help her through the day. To Kelly Davis I leave nothing because I plan to take her with me.

I, LINDA WASHINGTON, being of crazy mind and unleveled body, do hereby will the following: To my brother Larry, the ability to do his lessons. To all the upcoming Seniors, the best of luck. And to all the upcoming basketball players of next year, the ability to do their thing.

I, VICKI ROWELL, being of weird mind and small body, do hereby bequeath this to be my last will and testament. To my little sister, Leigh Anne, I leave the coming years at CCCHS for her to enjoy as much as I did. To Lori Moncrief, I leave the good times that we've had in the "Manhunter" with the exception of one, the Kojak Slide! To all my teachers, I leave my appreciation and to all my fellow students, I leave you good luck!!

I, KIM ENNIS, being of little mind and body, do hereby declare this to be my last will and testament. To Kathy Ennis, I leave a space in the parking lot in hopes that she will have a car for it. To Barbara Byrd, Penny Watson, and Earl Andrews, I leave the ability to make the most of your senior year. To all my teachers, I leave someone as quiet as myself to make the day less noisy. To upcoming seniors, I wish the best of luck.

I, SHARON MURCHISON, being of average mind and body, do hereby declare this is my last will and testament. To Theresa Murchison, I leave my sewing ability. To Felecia Murchison, I leave my ability to make friends. To Starlac Hatcher, I leave my graceful ability to stand up like a woman and love the one that means so much to her in life. To Mrs. Key, I leave my respect. Last, but not least, I leave to the upcoming seniors, the ability to hang in there when the going gets rough.

I, DEBRA ROUSEY, being of a SOUND mind and what is left of a body, hereby will to the following people: To Mr. Irby, I leave my good looks. To Eddie Rousey, and David Bassett, my ability to cheat without getting caught. To Todd Chapman, I leave the name "One Inch". To Mark Hamlin, I leave all my love. To C.C.C.H.S. I leave nothing.

I, GLENDA WALKER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To Lucinda Walker, I leave my seat in Mrs. Key's VOT/IOP class. To Angelyn Walker, I leave my seat in Government. To Jennifer Walker, I leave the ability to succeed in whatever she strives for. And to all the Seniors of "80", the very best of everything.

I, SONIA SIMMONS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To Patricia Simmons, I leave the ability to complete high school and become a successful young lady. To Jennifer Walker and Dell Marie, I leave my seat in senior class and a success in the future. To Marshall Waker I leave my smiles. And to all the faculty, I leave the ability to cope with the students!

I, MIKE KELLEY, being of Columbian mind and Gold body do hereby declare that this is my Last Will and Testament. I leave the following to my sister Debbie, my parking space and my ability to look outstandingly stupid. To Billy Joe Bassett, I leave the "man on the roof", may he one day sit upon that throne. To Vicki Highsmith I leave the "Green Bomb" so she can use "Grade A's" ability to get high. To Kelly Davis, I leave my seat in Mrs. Spillers room, may she catch the Hell I caught. To Mrs. Spillers I leave Onie's bottle of "Jack Daniels", if I can get it away from her. To my cousin Randy I leave my ability to be late to class and my diploma, because where I'll be I won't need it. To the rest of the HIGH SCHOOL I leave most happily.

I, KENNETH DAVIS, being a person with a small mind and handsome body will the following to anyone who wants it, my cross country track shoes and I wish them success. I also will to Andrew Matthews and Roychell Mays the ability to cooperate with members of the opposite sex as well as I did. Last but not least, I will to Earnestine Davis the hope that she will continue through High School.

I, WILLIE LEE COLBERT, being of sound mind and fine body leave this as my Last Will and Testament. I leave to my baby Lameka my love and also Jeremiah James. I leave to my sister Angela my loving ability and the talent to sew. I leave to my brother Lester my government seat and to my brother Chester my C. V. A. E. seat and may it be as thrilling to them as it was to me. Most of all I leave my blessing to all.

I, LILLIAN SMITH being of crazy mind and together body shall will to my sister Fannie the ability to make the "B" Team in Girls Basketball. And to Eula the ability to shut up her mouth when telling on other people.

I, LARRY CORBIN, being of sound mind and body, will the following to my brother Kenneth my seat in Mr. Hunter's class, to Donnie Johnson the ability to speak clearly, to William Dent, my two front teeth, to Mr. Hunter I will "2" of my hairs, to Mr. Bassett a life time subscription of Weight Watchers, but most of all I will to Teresa Reeves all my love.

I, EDDIE HARRIS, being of absent minded body do hereby proclaim this my Last Will and Testament. To Todd Frederick I leave my unique ability to walk sideways and the memory of Ms. 2020, to Ben Harris and Chris Smith, I leave a carton of "Pale Male" and the memories of a lot of crazy times together. You two won't let Mr. T. J. get next to you, to Skeebo I leave a nice clean ditch and a box of alka-seltzers, to Tim Smith I leave my hopes that he one day finds the front of the "line", to Lisa Brown, I leave my ability to write a composition the day it's due and still make a good grade, to some poor unfortunate soul, I leave my desk in Mrs. Spillers room. I hope you get as many hours of sleep in it as I did, to Mrs. Spillers, I leave my poor attitude, to Mr. Lively I leave the memories of my smiling face and his many moods some that were not so good. And to Crawford County Comprehensive High School, I leave absolutely nothing!

I, JANICE WALKER, leave behind to Delinda Grant my smart intelligent brain, she should use it to finish school at the early age of 16, and I leave my locker to Harris Wright 45-5-15, Love Janice.

I, PHYLLIS V. GAINES, being of sound mind and perfectly built body, hereby bequeath the following: to my brother Bruce Gaines, the ability to do what I always did . . . study, and to my youngest brother Danny Hart, the ability to stay out of trouble and to the Seniors of "80" and "84" I will all my love to them, and to succeed in what ever they do.

I, VALERIA SMITH, being of small mind but built body will to my sister, Tammie, the ability to be a star in softball like your other sisters, To Barbara and Rosa the ability to get their own ride to basketball practice. I will to Kenny Corbin my love, to Dexter I will you the ability to make the basketball team and never to give up if you don't make it. I, DIANE MICHELLE HOLLINGSBED, being of sound mind and body make this my last will and testament. To my sister, Dell Marie Hollingshed, I will the ability to strive only for the best in life, and I will her my hope that her Senior Year will be as rewarding as mine. To Patricia Simmons and Virginia Jones, I will my friendship.

I, VICKIE BURKES, being of top-heavy body and weak mind, leave the following things to the crazy folks at CCCHS. To Revonda Chapman, my best friend, I leave all the good times we've experienced at Good Old CCCHS. To Mark Hamlin (My Sugar), I leave all my love! I love you, Mark! To Cheryl Woods I leave my long fingernails. To Angie Hamlin I leave the hopes of one day not having to bum a ride. To Lisa Brown, my little sister, the joys of riding the bus to school. To all the Jrs., the wishes of the best Jr.-Sr. of all times.

I, ONIE SANDERS, being of SCHIZOPRENIC mind and CURVACEOUS body do hereby give, devise, and bequeath the following: To Linda Lowrey I leave my Barry Manilow collection, may you be as faithful to him as I have been. To Todd F., Brent, Stanley, and Lance, I leave my phone no. which they may use as soon as they get a car of their own. To Steve D., my seat at all the basketball games. To William H., my locker, No. 73 decorated with pictures from Plains. To Wheat I leave three lbs. of Kraft fudgies 'cause he ate all of ours. To Mr. Lively, Mr. Gill, and Mr. Smith (Billy), my three most treasured possessions: an autographed tee-shirt from Billy Carter, two six packs of Billy Beer, and three reservations at the Plains Hilton. To Ms. Thornton, my copy of "How to Speak Southern". To Mr. Bassett, my thanks for giving me recognition for the ONE prank that I didn't pull. To Mrs. Spillers I leave my best friend, Willie Ray, who will be by her side in times of need. Finally, to all my friends at CCCHS the hopes that one day you will have a football team, a spirit week, and all the privileges that SENIORS should have that we didn't get.

I, GWENDOLYN SHENELL BLASSINGAME, being of sound mind and lovely body hereby leave the following: To Milton Braswell, Thank You for making my Senior year special, I will miss you next year. (I love ya!) P. S. Stay SWEET. To Shirley Worsham, my best friend, I leave all the good times we have shared together. I will never forget you. I will cherish the friendship we have always. You and Pig hang in there! (Smile) To Stanley, Terry, and Latanya, do not stop reaching until you reach the top. To Jennifer Walker, remain as you are and you will go a long way. To Baba, Good luck with the men folks. Last but not least, to the man of my dreams, I will all of my love.

I, GLENIS McCRARY, with a sound mind and body will the following: To my brother, James, the ability to do his lessons, to Rickey Graddick the ability to pass government, and to the upcoming seniors, don't stop until you get off.

CLUBS

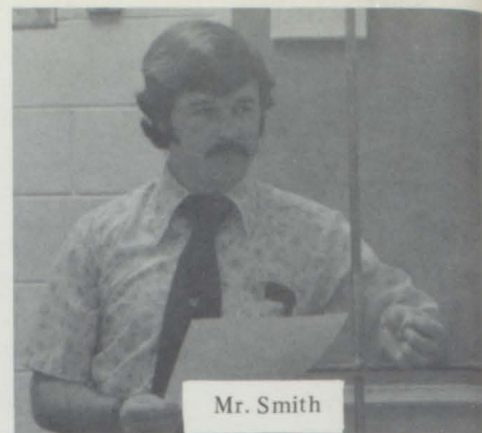

A great number of organizations appear when Crawford County High's activities are broken up in the manner of a spectrum. Like so many squares on a checkerboard, they combine to add more enjoyment to the game of learning. Clubs of many different types and proportions abound, and a student of any academic subject may obey his gregarious instinct and take part in the activities offered by the club in that field. Budding young artists, actors, farmers, and business leaders seeking security and encouragement in numbers band together to form various organizations. Entertainment and supplementary information gained from school clubs add a special flavor not received in class to academic and elective subjects. Each C. C. H. S. club functions independently but, like all construction lines in a good plan, is necessary to complete the perspective.

Last Will and Testament

I, SHIRLEY WEAVER, being of sound mind and body, will to Linda Weaver, my ability to pass, and Mr. Lively's book. To Mae Solomon I will my sewing ability and most of all my weight. And to all the upcoming Seniors, I will my desk in Mr. Lively's room.

I, KELVIN DAVISON, being of sound mind and finky body, will to Cheryl Harris my ability to cheat in Mr. Teague's room without getting caught and my seat in Mrs. Danielly's room. To Bennie Howard my flute. To Marie Harris, the ability to type without making mistakes and my ability to snatch answers out of a chemistry book. To Cynthia Hires, my ability to stop talking so much. To Bessie Felts, all my Trig answers.

I, RONNIE WALKER, being of well-together mind and athletic body, will to Ms. Brown, the number 5 in my basketball No. 54, because 5 is her favorite number and the desire to keep Porshia Ashanti Tempera X for wishes on Friday. And to Mrs. Bassett the 4 in the uniform because she's always correcting us when we say "Foe". I will to Marshall my dunking ability and to Jan and Vivian, my beard to pull on when they are nervous. To Tony Davis, and Donald Raines, my hot rod mustang that will run 133 m.p.h. To Patricia S., my ability to keep up our Aries proud. I will to Sonia L. Simmons my heart and love. And last to Coach Hawkins, my tennis shoes because no other player will be able to wear them. Bye! Bye!

I, AGNES IVEY, being of sound mind and perfect body, hereby will my ability to keep on trying real hard to reach success to my brother Richard. To my cousin Shirley, to finish school. And to my cousin Winifred and a friend Wilson, to try to climb the ladder and reach success also. And a very nice young man, all my love. And to the Seniors of "80", all my friendliness and so long.

I, ERIC BAGGARLEY, (Fatboy), being of ingenuis mind and extra-large body do hereby proclaim this my last will and testament. To Ben Harris, I leave my ability to conjure up a composition full of lies in ten minutes and still make an A. To Chris Smith I leave my parking space. There's so much oil there no one will know your car leaks. To Waylon Fossett I leave 30 or 40 pounds of my Fatboy muscle. You can use it.

I, BEATRICE HOLLIS, being of sound mind, hereby leave my last will and testament. To Belinda Hollis, my position on the "Basketball Court". To Donnie Johnson, take life as it comes. I leave all my love to Ralph J., the one I always cared for. To all the upcoming Seniors, the best of luck. To my coach (Zachery) and the team, all the fun and luck in the near future to come.

I, TERESA McDANIEL, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Patti Joyner, I leave the office of Project Chairperson, that I once had and never want again, to work your off on fair boothes, back drops, etc. and to be torn between Mrs. Marable and Mrs. Pagel. To all newcoming F. H. A.'ers I leave: Tom Watt, Doughnuts, Santa's Workshop, Halloween Carnivals, Sweetheart Balls, etc. To my sister Amy (Crawford County Middle School F. H. A. President) I leave all the hard work in hopes that the dream to be Miss Crawford County High F. H. A. will come true for her as it did for me. Thank you F. H. A. girls and Mrs. Marable. You will never know just how much F. H. A. and being Miss C. C. H. F. H. A. has meant to me.

I, CINDY HIGHSMITH, with a scattered mind and weird body, do hereby bequeath this my last will and testament. To Vickie Highsmith I leave my parking space, in hopes that she will need it more than I did. I also want to leave her all the good times I have had at Crawford County High. To Kelly Davis, better known as BOOTY, I leave the ability to be able to put up with Chris Walker, better known as TOOTY. To Chris Walker I leave all my love because I sure am going to miss him. To Karen Popham I leave the ability to read all those Love books without getting too excited. To Michael Childres I hope you can find someone else to pick on next year. To all the upcoming Seniors, Good Luck. (Some of you need it)

SPORTS

Sometimes in the world of athletics, things get out of focus. Often people put too much emphasis on meaningless achievement. They notice the hard cold statistics; they regale those who make the baskets, those who hit the homeruns, and those who finish first in the race. This outlook is only natural, but one should have a proper perspective when looking at the world of athletics. He should see the blood and sweat, the pain and hunger, and the mental as well as physical exhaustion that go into it. He should know that when victory does come, it is a team victory no matter who gets the headlines. He should see the courage, determination, and desire that when added to ability, produce champions but should know that ability alone is not enough. When athletics are viewed in this perspective, then and only then will its objectives be completely fulfilled.

A final lap in the high school race, a top rung on another ladder of experience, and a last coat of polish on an annual order of new adults and a Senior year is over. Opening their eyes on the vast world of study and activity, Juniors plunge forward, gaining momentum with each backward swing. Excellence becomes a standard by which they perform as is evident in all they undertake. To the young Sophomores and Freshmen, the glittering vision of high school life mellows into a long-awaited reality.
